About Nancy Devine

Nancy Devine has over 35 years of fundraising experience. She has dedicated her career to raising philanthropic dollars to help organizations build needed capacity and training staff and board members throughout the United States, Canada, and Africa.

Nancy is a nationally recognized speaker. Her presentation skills bring the audience into the field of philanthropy with concise, well-developed data and materials, as well as humor, heart, and knowledge.

Along with her BA from St. Joseph's College, Nancy is a graduate of the Association of Healthcare Philanthropy from the University of Wisconsin. She has received numerous awards including Volunteer of the Year from the Texas American Heart Association and an Award of Excellence from the International Association of Business Communicators (IABC).

The Art and Science of Major Donor Asks

A two-hour workshop designed to build confidence through education and training for CEO's, presidents, boards, volunteers, and anyone interested in bringing your organization into the next step of philanthropy through a solid and effective Major Donor Program.

Proposals prepared upon request.

Contracts are for a
three-month
minimum period.
Six months is optimal.

All normal
business expenses
are billed as incurred.

On-Site Consulting Services

A retained fee arrangement designed to develop, initiate, and manage major and planned giving programs tailored to your organization. On-site services include preparation time.

Teach and train the Art and Science of asset development. Work with your board of directors and volunteers toward a true comfort and love of the ask.

Special presentations to donors, volunteers, professional advisors, and board members are tailored to your needs.

Services include:

- Consultation with staff and others relevant to the project
- Review of data and history of giving
- SYBUNT/LYBUNT review for viable major donor and bequest prospects
- Program development and training
- Set up of moves management system, including stewardship
- Discussion of next steps

After Care

Continuing after implementation of major or planned giving programs is key to the sustainability of your programs. After Care is designed to enable the development professional or other staff to successfully manage a comprehensive program understanding limitations of time and budget.

After Care can be arranged in 3-month, 6-month, and 1-year agreements. It includes eight hours of telephone support to advance the charitable gift programs established.
